Nevada Appeals Panel for Industrial Insurance (“Appeals Panel”)

An employer, other than a self-insured employer, may request a hearing by the Appeals Panel for policyholder grievances involving premium disputes for industrial insurance. The Appeals Panel is authorized to hear disputes by an employer who determines that circumstances specific to their case requires a review of:

- The employers experience rating modification;
- The classification of risk assigned to the employer’s business; or
- The application of the supplementary rate information assigned to the employer.

The Appeals Panel is not authorized to consider matters concerning:

- The effect of the classifications of risks or rules that are applied by all insurers to all similarly classified businesses within Nevada; or
- Grievances concerning contested cases for compensation pursuant to the provisions of chapters 616A to 616D, inclusive, or chapter 617 of Nevada Revised Statutes (NRS).

To request a hearing, the employer must submit a written grievance to the Appeals Panel. The grievance must include:

- A statement requesting a hearing by the Appeals Panel; and
- A clear, simple statement describing the issues in dispute and the relief requested.

Direct requests for an Appeals Panel hearing to:
