RE: Informational Association Health Plan Filing – The Northern Nevada Dental Society

Dear Commissioner Richardson:

We are pleased to submit the informational filing for an Association Health Plan (AHP) offered through the Northern Nevada Dental Society. The Northern Nevada Dental Society AHP will be called the Northern Nevada Dental Society and will be available to members in good standing.

The following items are included in the informational filing for the Northern Nevada Dental Society Association Health Plan:

1. A copy of the Society's Articles of Incorporation.
2. A copy of the Society's bylaws.
3. The Northern Nevada Dental Society was established in 2003 to advocate for, inform and connect the members of the Society and the Northern Nevada business community. The NNDS is a component of the Nevada Dental Association and the American Dental Association. Through standards and quality of care our member dentists provide oral health care to our community in their practices and through volunteerism. The Northern Nevada Dental Society provides advocacy, peer review, continuing education, volunteer dental programs to help the underserved, leadership, benefits of the tripartite, and practice resources. Additional information regarding the Society and the activities and benefits it provides to its members can be obtained at www.nndental.org.
