- (3) The only other way this policy can be changed is if we change it in writing. Any changes will be made a part of this policy. Any changes in your premium will be made at that time.
- (4) If your policy is renewed, we will furnish you any form revisions applicable to your policy.

b. Midterm Rate Changes

The premium you are charged for this policy is based on information that you provided to us, and on information we gather from other sources. You must immediately inform us if any of the information you have provided to us changes, is incomplete, or is incorrect. Based on the changed, completed or corrected information, we may decrease or increase the premium for your policy during the Policy Period.

Any premium increase or decrease will be based on the rules and rates in effect at the inception of the Policy Period.

Cancellation is replaced by:

15. Cancellation. You may cancel your policy by returning the Declarations Page to us or by mailing to us a written notice telling us the advance date that cancellation is to become effective.

If a mortgagee is named on the Declarations Page, we will provide acknowledgement to the mortgagee ten days prior to cancellation of the mortgagee's interest in this policy by any legal means available.

We may cancel this policy for any reason during the first 70 days we insure you. After the first 70 days we may cancel your policy if any of the following occur:

1. Non payment of premium.
2. Fraud and material misrepresentation.
3. Discovery of an act or omission or violation of policy conditions occurring after the first policy effective date that substantially and materially increases the risk insured against.
4. Conviction of the insured arising out of acts increasing the hazard insured against.
5. A material change in the nature or extent of the risk, occurring after the first effective date of the current policy, which causes the risk of loss to be substantially and materially increased beyond that contemplated at the time the policy was issued or last renewed.
6. Determination by the Commissioner that continuation of policy would violate the law.

We will mail a cancellation notice to you at least 30 days (10 days if you have not paid the premium) before this policy is cancelled. We will mail a cancellation notice to your last address known to us or your insurance representative. We will also give notice to your mortgagee.

When this policy is written for a period longer than one year, we may cancel for any reason at anniversary by notifying you at least 30 days before the date cancellation takes effect.

Your mortgagee may cancel this policy if your dwelling has been repossessed or your mortgagee has otherwise acquired ownership of it. The mortgagee may then cancel this policy on behalf of all parties who have an interest insured by this policy and upon surrender of this policy.

If there is any refund of premium due you, we will mail it to you with your cancellation notice as soon as possible after we mail the notice. Return premium will be calculated pro rata. If you cancel, return premium will be subject to any Minimum Earned Premium shown on the Declarations Page of this policy. Pro rata cancellation means that we keep premium only for the period of time you were insured. If your premium is financed, that financing interest will be recognized in any refund due.

Renewal is replaced by:

The following conditions are added:

Automatic Termination. If we offer to renew or continue this policy, but you or your representatives do not accept our offer, then this policy will automatically terminate at the end of the current policy period. Failure to pay the required renewal or continuation premium when due will mean that you have not accepted our offer.

Notice of Cancellation or Nonrenewal. The Notice of Cancellation or Nonrenewal will be mailed, fully prepaid to you and the mortgagee. If notice is mailed, proof of mailing will be sufficient proof of notice.

We will address the cancellation or nonrenewal notice to your address shown in the policy.
