

Mr. Plain,

Habilitative care services are important to me and that our kids should be considered when benefits decisions are made. I have disabilities myself and so do all 4 of my children. Please do not take this away from our most vulnerable population.

Shauna M. Buxton