

Network Adequacy

Telehealth Data

Telehealth Data Submissions

- For Plan Year 2021 Carriers were required to submit Telehealth Data related to member utilization and visits by county and specialty
- Individual Market Data Received on June 3, 2020
- Data Represented Claims data for Plan Year 2019 as of March 31, 2020

Telehealth Data Takeaways

- 2-3% of Individual Market Enrollees Using Telehealth
- Specialties of Highest Utilization
 - Family Practice
 - Internal Medicine
 - Mental Health Providers (Psychiatry, LCSW, Marriage & Family Counselors, etc.)
 - Allergists

Telehealth Specialties Reported

- Allergy Immunology
- Anesthesiology
- Cardiology
- Clinical Nurse Specialist
- Dermatology
- Emergency Medicine
- Endocrinology
- Family Practice
- Gastroenterology
- Hospitalist
- Internal Medicine
- LCSW
- Marriage & Family Counselor
- Mental Health Provider
- Multi Specialty Group
- Neurology
- Nurse Practitioner
- Nutritionist
- OB/GYN
- Pain Management
- Pediatric Medicine
- Physical Medicine/Rehab
- Physician Assistant
- Psychiatry
- Psychologist
- Pulmonary Disease
- Registered Dietitian
- Sports Medicine

Other Considerations

- Barriers to Adequacy
 - Workforce Shortages
 - Availability of Data
 - Population distribution/Population Density
 - Internet Connectivity in Rural Nevada
- Additional Considerations
 - New Metrics/Standards
 - Access to a Diverse Network
 - Cost Considerations

Questions

