RE: Informational Association Health Plan Filing – The Washoe County Medical Society

Dear Commissioner Richardson:

We are pleased to submit the informational filing for an Association Health Plan (AHP) offered through the Washoe County Medical Society. The Washoe County Medical Society AHP will be called the Washoe County Medical Society Association Health Plan and will be available to members in good standing.

The following items are included in the informational filing for the Washoe County Medical Society Association Health Plan:

1. A copy of the Society's Articles of Incorporation.
2. A copy of the Society's bylaws.
3. The Washoe County Medical Society was established in 1950 and is a non-profit entity incorporated in the state of Nevada. The Washoe County Medical Society is commonly referred to as "WCMS". The Washoe County Medical Society serves as a primary source of health related information, we seek to educate our members and the citizens of Northern Nevada. We strive to maintain the highest standard of ethics and medical care throughout our community, for more information visit www.wcmsnv.org.
