If the insured person and we do not agree on that person's right to receive damages or on the amount, then upon mutual consent, the disagreement will be settled by arbitration.

If the insured person and we do not agree to arbitrate, then the disagreement will be resolved in a court of competent jurisdiction. The arbitrators will not have the power to decide any dispute regarding the nature or the amount of coverage provided by the policy or claims for damages outside the terms of the policy, including, but not limited to, claims for bad faith, fraud, misrepresentation, punitive or exemplary damages, attorney fees and/or interest. Arbitration will take place under the rules of the American Arbitration Association.

The written agreement of any two arbitrators will determine the issues. The insured person will pay the arbitrator that person selects. We will pay the one we select. The expenses of the third arbitrator and all other expenses of arbitration will be shared equally. However, attorney fees and fees paid to medical and other expert witnesses are not considered arbitration expenses. These costs will be paid by the party incurring them.
