To help licensees with their compliance requirements under current COVID-19 conditions, the Nevada Division of Insurance, Licensing Section, presents the following FAQ's:

Q: I am applying for a new insurance license and am having trouble getting the test scheduled and fingerprints taken. What can I do?

A: Pearson VUE test sites in Reno and Las Vegas, Third-Party sites are currently testing at 50% capacity.

Q: Are residents able to test and fingerprint at the same time?

A: Yes. Pearson VUE scheduling appointments for fingerprinting at their test sites. To make an appointment please contact Idemia at (866) 761-8069 or visit their website at <https://pearsonwestd.ibtfingerprint.com>

Q: How long does it take to process my application that is submitted online?

A: If the renewal application is submitted NIPR or Sircon and meets all of Nevada's business rules, the application will be approved immediately. Documentation regarding background questions should be submitted in the NIPR Warehouse at the time of application submission. If the application requires additional information or documentation, NIPR or Sircon provides a general response about the requirements that still need to be met. This may require the applicant to provide documentation for Nevada staff to verify information.

Applicants must upload any required documentation to their application in NIPR or Sircon. Should you not be able to, please contact the Division.

Q: Is there a delay in processing applications brought on by the COVID-19 conditions?

A: Applications are currently being processed in the order they are received.

Q: Is there an extension for CE or license renewal currently?

A: There is no impact currently to the availability of our website for access to forms and/or the services of our online vendors - NIPR and Sircon - for online transactions. Renewals are available 90-days prior to expirations. CE can be done anytime over the three-year period between renewals. Nevada has currently waived proctoring of exams for CE until March 31, 2021. The licensee is required to take the exam as the end of the course.

Q: Can CE providers convert in-classroom courses to webinar or self-study?

A: Yes. Providers are approved to convert in-classroom courses to webinar or self-study. However, students are still required to take the exam for self-study, but the proctoring of exams has been waived until March 31, 2021.

Q: Is the process to submit a service/maintenance (i.e., name change, line of authority modification, or letter of clearance) for an active licensee requested changed?

A: If you need to submit a service request using a DOI form, all can be received by email for processing. Here is a link to our website in regard to service/maintenance requests: <https://doi.nv.gov/Licensing/Maintain-License-Association/>

Q: What is the method to send documentation to the Nevada DOI Licensing Section?

A: You can still use the NIPR reporting and document warehouse and the Sircon attachment systems for applications, reporting of actions and renewal documentation. Should an issue arise please contact the Division.

Q: Will you be issuing temporary licenses?

A: Nevada Division of Insurance ("Division") understands the impact that efforts to prevent the spread of COVID-19 has on individuals desiring to become licensed to conduct the business of insurance.

Nevada law requires individuals to qualify for a license by taking an exam, submitting fingerprints, and completing an application. These requirements ensure that individuals have an entry-level competence and are less likely to pose a risk to insurance consumers.

To continue to meet the Division's mission to protect insurance consumers, the Division does not plan to waive the requirements for licensure, even on a temporary basis.

The Division is pleased to announce that it is working with its testing vendor, Pearson VUE, to offer safe testing environments and applicants can still get fingerprints submitted through alternate locations within Nevada.

Please refer to the Licensing Section of the Division's website for further information.

Q: Will CE deadlines be extended?

A: Due to the significant availability of online courses (approximately 7,500 active online courses), and two vendors whose services for online renewal are still available, there is currently no decision to extend CE or renewal deadlines currently. Nevada has temporarily waived the proctor exam portion of self-study CE courses only until March 31, 2021. Many providers are converting classroom courses and conferences to webinar format as they continue to work to provide greater flexibility and availability.

Q: How are the normal processes and services impacted at this time?

A: The Division is highly encouraging online transactions (NIPR & Sircon), accessing our website (www.doi.nv.gov) and sending email communications to necessary staff so we can respond as needed and continue to get the work done in an efficient manner.

Q: How can I check on the status of my application?

A: The Division recommends that you check on the status of your online transaction with the vendor you submitted through.

Q: How can I get a license copy if one is not sent to me?

A: You may print your license from Sircon. <https://www.sircon.com/Nevada>

Q: What services are unavailable/disrupted at this time?

A: At this time, there is no disruption of work, we are not shutdown as to our usual licensing services. However, there are new options available that already adhere to the new protective protocols. The Division recommends email communications, rather than phones, so that we may respond more efficiently.

Q: How are appointment renewals being processed?

A: Currently there is no change in the process of appointment renewals. The Division requires an insurer to annually renew each appointment of a producer of insurance who acts as his/her agent.

Q: Can I do other work at an insurance office while I wait to get my license?

A: Yes. However, unlicensed persons cannot perform licensable activities. Currently, the Division is not issuing temporary licenses or suspending any licensing requirements. If you have questions about which acts require a license and which do not, see attached National Association of Insurance Commissioner's PDF.

The Division strongly encourages you to visit our website for any updates: www.doi.nv.gov
